Course description

Inquiries in Biological Sciences. Topics include conservation genetics, substitution reactions, ecology, amines and metabolic regulation; later weeks address restoration ecology, Mendelian genetics and biodiversity.

Learning outcomes

By the end of the course, students will be able to:
1. Explain the core ideas of conservation genetics.
2. Apply substitution reactions to solve standard problems.
3. Analyze problems involving ecology.
4. Use amines in practical exercises.
5. Evaluate approaches to metabolic regulation.
6. Communicate findings about restoration ecology.
